CAMP SIX ACRES PHILOSOPHY

The Six Acres program incorporates the goals of recreation, education and concern. As educators, we all desire the children's experience to be a pleasant and satisfying one. Our pro-gram strives to build self-esteem through pursuing individual interests, allowing the campers to choose some of their own camp activities. Our goal is to incorporate physical fitness and recreational activities, which are important and necessary in the development of each camper. Camp Six Acres provides a friendly and supportive environment, which helps the campers express themselves while making new friends. All activities are conducted keeping the safety of each camper foremost in our minds.

DIRECTORS

Mary Hoarty is a graduate of Salem State College with a degree in Sports, Fitness and Leisure. She is currently involved in the Medford Public Schools as a Physical Education teacher and swim team coach. Mary has been a member of the Six Acres family for many years - as a camper, counselor and Assistant Director.

JP Cormio majored in History and minored in Education at Assumption College. JP has been a staff member of Camp Six Acres for many years. JP currently serves as coach of the Boys Varsity Soccer Team at Reading High School, and teaches at Roberts Elementary School.

STAFF & EVENTS

Our experienced staff of mature and dedicated counselors has made a commitment to the safety of our campers. They supervise all daily activities as well as special events, such as Carnival Day, Olympic Day, World Cup Tournament, field trip, barbeque and evening entertainment. Senior counselors supervise carefully selected junior counselors and C.I.T.s in all aspects of camping as related to our campers.

C.I.T.'s (Counselor-in-Training)

This successful program allows the C.I.T.'s returning campers, ages 13-15 the opportunity to learn and experience the responsibilities and demands of being a counselor. The Directors must be contacted before a C.I.T. is accepted into the program. Positions are very limited.

1st year CIT $1,000; 2nd year $900

DAILY PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

The campers participate in a structured morning program consisting of instructional swim, arts & crafts, creative arts, a group activity, and athletics. The athletics staff and counselors supervise campers in basketball, street hockey, soccer, volleyball and other recreational games. Camp Six Acres' afternoons are spent leisurely. The campers may choose from one of the morning activities, free swim or any of the many organized activities that are offered.

SWIMMING POOL

Members of our aquatic staff are all Red Cross Certified and conduct daily swimming lessons as well as supervise all free swim time. Campers should bring swim gear including towels and sunblock. Six Acres in ground pool is a favorite among campers!
